

INNOVATION MEETS SUSTAINABILITY: FLYERLINE SHOWCASES ITS ENTIRE RANGE OF MODERN PACKAGING AND POS SOLU- TIONS AT FACHPACK 2025

Altnau, 25 August 2025 – Flyerline Schweiz AG, one of Switzerland’s leading online printing companies and packaging specialists, will showcase its entire range of products and services at the FACHPACK trade fair in Nuremberg from 23–25 September 2025. The offering spans from smart standard solutions to highly customised innovations – all from a single source and featuring in-house developments, production and finishing under one roof. Because Flyerline manages every stage of production in-house, it can respond quickly to customer requests, guarantee top quality, and deliver even complex projects on time.

Visitors will find Flyerline in Hall 4, Stand 4-323.

Versatility that brings brands to life

Flyerline combines industrial digital printing with development expertise. The result: solid and corrugated cardboard packages, flexible packaging solutions and eye-catching POS materials that are both functional and sustainable – with the option of using variable print images within a single print run simultaneously opening up new opportunities for successful brand communication.

Highlights at Stand 4-323

- Solid and corrugated cardboard packages: recyclable standard and special solutions with custom printing for maximum brand exposure.
- Sustainable flexible packaging: stand-up pouches made from mono-materials or featuring a paper-like finish – recyclable, many different configuration options (aroma protection valve, Eurohole, zipper) and with all-over printing.
- POS displays: from standardised presentation systems to customised concepts – perfect for flexible use at points of sale.

“We aspire to develop the right packaging or POS solution for each and every product – tailor-made, sustainable and with strong brand support,” says Steffen Tomasi, CEO of Flyerline Schweiz AG. “FACHPACK is the perfect venue for us to demonstrate how we blend innovation, design and functionality.”

More than just printing

Flyerline offers comprehensive end-to-end project support – from the initial idea and concept development to prototyping, sampling, graphic design, and on-time delivery. On request, Flyerline can also package the products and handle all logistics. Digital ordering solutions, like Web-2Print platforms, complement the range and optimise the procurement process for companies.
